Dear Jake:

Confirming my telephone conversation with you, I plan to attend the Commanders' Conference at Maxwell Air Force Base and expect to arrive there on the afternoon of the 28th and remain for the full program.

I should appreciate if in your arrangements you would allow me ten or fifteen minutes at some point in the program to present matters of mutual interest to the group regarding CIA-Air Force relationships.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Dear Pearre:

General Twining invites you to attend his Commanders' Conference, being held at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama, on 28, 29 and 30 January 1957.

The principal subject will be the FY 1958 Program. Major Commanders will also present subjects of their own choosing which are of interest to the Chief of Staff and other Commanders.

It is anticipated that formal sessions will be conducted during the morning hours only. The tentative schedule is -

28 Jan - FY 1958 Program by
Headquarters USAF

29 Jan - Discussion by Conferees of the Headquarters USAF Presentation

30 Jan - Presentations by the Major
Air Commanders

Please let me know of your wishes in this matter, in order that appropriate arrangements can be made.

Sincerely yours,

JACOB E. SMART
